FIFTY MEN

anded a Colored Murderer in the Juli VERSAILLES, Ky., Aug. 16 .- About men, two white and the rest colored rode into Versailles Sunday afternoon for the purpose of lodging in jail Joe Jones, colored, the perpetrator of a terrible murder at Faywood, this county, Saturday night. Jones and Rankin, the murdered Negro, attended a festival at the residence of James Johnson Saturday. They had trouble over Rankin's wife. Between 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday night in a dirt lane near Johnson's Jones blew the top of Rankin's head off with a shotgun. Jones made his escape. After dragging Rankin's body into some weeds on the side of the road, Jones made his way to Elkchester, a station on the Louisville Southern, and asked for a drink of water at a cabin there. The Negro woman recognized him and sent the intelligence to the party which was scouring the country for him. Jones is about 25 years old, and the slain man was about 50.

central committee assembled at the

Galt house Monday afternoon and selected United States Senator W. J. Deboe. of Marion county, for temporary chairman. It is the general impression that Judge George Denny, of Lexington, will be selected by the convention Tuesday for the permanent chairmanship. The opinion among the leading delegates Monday night was that the convention will be entirely harmoninecessary .. ous. In some quarters the feeling .. change seemed to prevail that the old fight be tween the Bradley and Hunter-Todd factions would be re-opened on the floor of the convention, but the leaders are sanguine that they will be able to bridge it over. Chairman Barnett, of the state central committeee, in an interview Monday, said: "I believe that the prospects for victory by the republicans this year going to make a good fight and the vote will be heavy."

When asked whether the convention would make any special indorsement of the Bradley administration, Mr. Barnet replied that there would be an indorsement of the national administration and incidentally the Kentucky administration would come in for a share. The platform, he said, would emphatically condemn mob law, and civil service and prosperity would be touched upon.
